OUR PROCESS

Through our personalized elite dating service and matchmaking, we select the most qualified singles that meet your specific criteria.

We will help you find your ideal match as quickly and painlessly as possible, so you can avoid spending time and money on disappointing dates. Our members are well-educated individuals that we can coach, guide, and inspire to find real love.

Dating may have been challenging for you in the past, and you are now seeking solutions to a more successful experience. Maybe you have tried dating services or to meet successful singles online without success but so far you have not found your love and ideal partner.

Love is an emotion that connects two unconnected people. Forging of this bond requires investment of time, faith and goodwill apart from an equal desire on both sides to explore a possible common road. You will come to know to each other, like each other, help and care for each other, enjoy each other's company. You will learn about how to deal with each other and slowly move to a point where you may feel the other person is an absolutely integral, inseparable part of your life.

Dating can be difficult for everyone; however, it is made that much harder when you have special requirements. We understand these issues at Macbeth Matchmaking and we have developed a private approach to helping the most discerning singles increase their chances for a more promising and exciting personal life.

Our services are unique and designed to suit the personality, income, lifestyle and preferences of each individual client.

ALL PROGRAMS ARE 100% CUSTOMIZED, CONFIDENTIAL, AND CONDUCTED BY OUR OWN MATCHMAKERS

01 START

- Upon completion of the enquiry form, our Matchmaker will schedule a free 30-minute consultation to explore your desires.
- We will then carry out an in-depth assessment of our profiles and propose up to 3 matches. We hand-match genuine singles with other great people we represent
- Afterwards you can decide whether to join our Local Dating or International Dating Program. You can also elect to be part of our Watch Services which will monitor your profile against active and new members. For any subsequent date introduction, a fee will apply.
- None of your personal information will ever be shared with any possible matches without your explicit consent.

02 INTERVIEW

- Upon registration, our Matchmaker will conduct an in-depth personal interview with you on site or at the location of your choice.
- During this phase, we learn from your personal history about your likes and dislikes, what has and has not worked for you in past relationships, so that we can determine what will work best for you moving forward. We will get to know you on a very personal level, something we do with all clients on the Local and International Programs.
- This process also allows us to evaluate factors like personality, values, emotional availability, body language, and physical appearance, all of which would be lost with just an online experience.

03 BENCHMARKING

- After the personal interview, we will use our psychologist who will assess your professional and social indicators.
- The purpose of using benchmarks is to focus the search but not constrain it. Our Matchmakers are trained to identify the potential compatibility of a couple beyond the obvious indicators.

04 PRESENTATION

- Our Matchmaker puts together a comprehensive presentation of potential matches. The presentation details relevant facts and recent personal developments. The client can then make an informed decision whether to pursue a particular match or continue on with the search.
- This screening process is customized and includes further research to uncover important information relevant to the client. One important point is that none of our clients' personal information is ever shared with possible matches without their explicit consent.

05 SELECTION AND DATE

- We only introduce our clients to a must-meet match who we believe might be "the one."
- Dating and meeting in person are perhaps the most exciting phase because each client can assess for themselves whether there is any compatibility in terms of personality and lifestyle, as well as level of physical attraction and chemistry.

06 FEEDBACK

- After the date, each client independently consults with his or her Matchmaker to evaluate the introduction.
- Our Matchmaker encourages each party to discuss how the date went and asks how they would like to proceed. This phase is helpful for both the client and the Matchmaker moving forward.
